Здравствуйте! Hello!.

The Spiritual Resource Foundation (TSRF) is a 501c(3) charity. Our purpose is given in our Mission statement: "In order to further the healing of sickness and sin, the mission of the Foundation is to support Christian Science activities in the Russian-speaking field."

We are writing to inform you about our continuing efforts to support new and future Christian Scientists in the Russian-speaking field and to ask for your support in doing so.

TSRF has been in existence since 1996, in various forms, and under various names. It has helped purchase buildings for churches and reading rooms, and partially or fully funded:

- shortwave broadcast and web publication of the Bible Lesson,
- Russian translation of two books, including Persistent Pilgrim by Richard Nenneman, on Christian Science,
- publication of the Russian Herald,
- sharing Christian Science literature at book fairs,
- Christian Science Lectures,
- shipping Science and Health and other literature to Russia,
- travel expenses for Association students and speakers, and
- legal counsel to protect the rights and freedoms of Christian Scientists.

We continue to provide these services and are on the lookout for other cost-effective ways we can make Christian Science early available to seekers. We work with The Mother Church to ensure our activities are consistent with their goals and synchronized with their activities.

Christian Scientists who have worked in Russia have noted a particular receptiveness to and gratitude for spiritual concepts, in spite of the tightening regulatory climate for non-state churches. Moscow residents are interested in re-starting a Christian Science Society after a period of dormancy. We are also glad to hear that another practitioner, Alex Fisher, from Paris, now plans to live and practice for part of the year in St. Petersburg. With Marie Helm staying there for another part of the year, this means St. Petersburg will have a resident practitioner for most of the year.

All the good accomplished through the support of TSRF has been the result of the generosity of Christian Science churches, organizations, and individuals who want to support Russian-speaking Christian Scientists. We, the all-volunteer board of TSRF, are most grateful for your support.
